ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce the following gentlemen as Democratic candidates for Congress in this, the Ninth District, at the State primary, August 5th, 1916:

HON. W. J. FIELDS, OF CARTER COUNTY
HON. J. W. RILEY, OF ROWAN COUNTY
HON. J. B. HILES, OF BRACKEN COUNTY

A MOST ENCOURAGING SIGN

While the exact result throughout the state is not yet definitely known, as this is being written, it is confidently thought there were in the Sunday Schools of Kentucky last Sunday over one million men, women and children. This, to our mind, is the most encouraging sign of the times. We often hear some man say that he does not go to Sunday School because this man or that does, whom he believes to be a hypocrite. Possibly his estimate is correct. One finds such men everywhere, yet that is a criticism that should be applied to the individual and not the institution and a man who does not enjoy a Sunday School for such a reason is controlled by ignorance or prejudice and possibly by both. Many men go to Sunday School who realize their lives are not just what they ought to be and they are honest enough to lay no claims to perfection. They believe, yes know, that only good can come out of it and that the Sunday School of today is an indispensable moral force in the lives of every man, woman and child.

May the movement continue to grow, until there will be none so indifferent as not to be identified with some Bible School. One cannot be hurt by such a course, but on the contrary will be immeasurably benefited. If you have never tried it, do so next Sunday, which is Mothers Day.

We are glad to see our good friend, Mr. James B. Stears, editor of the Jessamine News, and president of the Kentucky Press Association, appointed postmaster of Nicholasville. His appointment is only the recognition due him for services to the party and we congratulate Congressman Helm upon his recommendation and venture the assertion he will never regret having placed so good a man in the position.

COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Breckinridge Horton.)

Miss Ethel Baker, of this county, was a visitor of our school two days last week.

Miss Gene Schlegel, daughter of our esteemed teacher of the Freshman Class, is very ill. However, Mrs. Schlegel has attended to her duties with the utmost attention.

Mrs. M. J. Goodwin, wife of our principal, has also been very ill the past week.

Last Friday at the Fair Grounds park, a baseball team composed of the younger boys of our school was defeated by a similar team of the City Schools by a fair score. Payne and Alfrey was the battery of the local team.

We are all having examinations this week. Friday our school will close, nine months having passed. Next Sunday the Seniors will have their baccalaureate address at the Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m.

Worn Out?

No doubt you are, if you suffer from any of the numerous ailments to which all women are subject. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, weak, tired feeling, are some of the symptoms, and you must rid yourself of them in order to feel well. Thousands of women, who have been benefited by this remedy, urge you to

Cardui

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Sylvia Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., says: "Before taking Cardui, I was, at times, so weak I could hardly walk, and the pain in my back and head nearly killed me. After taking three bottles of Cardui, the pains disappeared. Now I feel as well as I ever did. Every suffering woman should try Cardui." Get a bottle today. E-68 by Rev. J. S. Wilson. Next Tuesday will be class day. The exercises will be held at the school building on Holt avenue, the graduating address being that night at the Christian church. Dr. Crossfield, of Transylvania College, will be the speaker.

Mr. W. H. Moore, representing Wesleyan College at Winchester, visited us Monday. He highly complimented our situation and grounds.

Next Monday the girls will have a sewing exhibit at the school building. This class has made splendid progress during its existence. Miss Buckman, of the State University, will be the judge of the articles. The public is invited to see the exhibit.

As this is the last week of our school we are all in good spirits and are sure that we can stand all our tests. We are looking forward to a happy vacation this summer and hope that when the bell calls us to our places next September all the student body will return, bringing some more in with them. Of course the graduates are excusable, but we wish to see them all start to college to reach a higher aim. There are good prospects for fifteen Seniors next year.

LACKS LIQUOR O. K.

Why not send Lieut. Gov. Black to St. Louis as one of the delegates at large or make him Chairman of the State Convention? He elected the ticket last November. Probably he is being ignored because he is "dry."—Elizabethtown News.

OF INTEREST LOCALLY

A recent issue of the Montgomery (Alabama) Advertiser shows Mr. Henry R. Bright, formerly of this county, in his alfalfa fields and gives a fine view of the beautiful residence of Mr. R. B. Young, also a former resident of this county, and now of Demopolis, Ala.

TOO LONESOME FOR BERT

Bert Harris, colored, who was being held in the county jail to appear before the present grand jury for grand larceny, escaped on last Friday night between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock by tearing out a sufficient space in the wall to accommodate his huge frame. The discovery was made at 8 o'clock when Jailer M. M. Brothers went in to place the negro in his cell.

Harris was the only prisoner in the jail and the supposition is that the solitude was too great for him, and with a hatchet and poker, neither of which were supposed to have been in that portion of the jail, he drilled a hole in the wall during the day and when the shades of evening came on he bade the place a happy farewell. It has been recalled by Mr. Brothers and family that all during the day Friday, Harris sang popular "Coon" songs and his voice at times reached extremely high notes, thus he was getting in his best lies. Now, for one time in many years, the county jail of Nicholas county is empty. What county can show the same record?—Carlisle Advocate
